This is a key position with a leading national firm of commercial property and planning consultants. A new and exciting opportunity, the position offers a talented individual the platform for potential equity in the business in the future

The Role:

With the continued success and growing pipeline of planning consultancy instructions, a need has arisen for an established partner to join the planning business and work closely with the UK Head of Planning to provide strategic guidance and leadership to the London planning team and wider UK planning department

You will oversee the current planning consultancy workload and direct a portfolio of projects spanning regeneration, large scale planning applications to leading edge commercial and mixed use development. You will also work closely with the Head of Planning to build existing and new business opportunities

This position would ideally be suited to someone currently employed within the private sector in London/SE, who has to date devoted their career to town planning across a broad spectrum of market sectors such as residential, commercial, retail, mixed use

This is an ideal and challenging opportunity for an experienced professional with strong commercial acumen and the experience and ability to manage and provide direction to a planning team.

Expect a competitive salary with a generous portfolio of benefits which are unique to the company.
